Birthdays

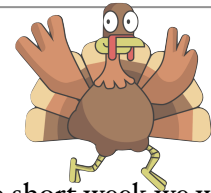

We will celebrate class birthdays as a class by saying a birthday chant (no singing!) and playing birthday bingo. When your child's birthday comes up, he or she is welcome to bring a store-bought, individually wrapped treat to share. The treat is optional.

Library Renewals

If your child would like to renew a library book, the book should stay home and the child can ask Mrs. Faber. If the book goes in the classroom library return bin it will be quarantined for two days and then checked back in.

Seesaw Class

Mrs. Taves has made a couple recorder videos. They should be visible in Seesaw Class, under the announcements or inbox tab. Some students have had success viewing these. If you're having trouble please let Mrs. Taves know!

Spelling - Week 5

This week features contractions! Despite the short week we will have a test on Friday. There are a few homophones in the list. Our spelling workbooks will help students match the spelling to the meaning, but your child will also benefit from practicing these words in the context of a sentence at home. Example:
Whose: Whose lunch is still on the counter? Who's: Who's supposed to wash the masks today?

LA

We will be wrapping up our novel study on The Cay this week. Students will be completing a few more journal entries based on their connections to the text.

Math

This week's fun facts check-in will focus on the ten times table. We have finished our unit on whole numbers and will be beginning a new unit on patterns. For this unit we will work from the grade 5 math textbook so this book may occasionally come home with your child for completing homework.

If your child would like to improve his/her math grade, there will be an opportunity to retest on Tuesday. The first test, sent home yesterday, can be used as a review sheet.

Unit Studies

This week we will begin our new unit in science we will be exploring Simple Machines! We will also finish up our social studies unit on First Peoples of Canada.

Bible

We are continuing our discussion on learning from mistakes as we work through our unit on Daniel and Esther. A common theme throughout our Bible units in Grade 5 is how God can use mistakes as teaching opportunities to help us grow and develop in our faith journey and in our relationship with Christ.
