Grandparents Day

We have Grandparents' Day coming right up on April 26. We are so excited to welcome the older generation to spend a morning with us. Those who do not have a grandparent available to come can invite a family friend, aunt or uncle. I will have a variety of things going on in the classroom that the students can do with or without a grandparent. Some grandparents have multiple classrooms to visit, so there will be a busy vibe with guests popping in and out. Yellow invitations went home this week with the details about the schedule and specific parking instructions.

Science Collaboration

We have grade 11 Calvin Collegiate pen pals who are studying body systems and are working with us to create their final projects. Each grade 11 student will research and present a body systems project according to the interests of their grade 5 buddies. We're communicating through paper letters, emails, and they will visit us to present in-person toward the end of June. Mrs. Luloff is the teacher who is leading this learning experience.

Class Recipe Book- Repeat

If your child would like to share a recipe to our electronic class recipe book would you help them type it up, (or just send a clear picture!), proof read and email it to me by April 12 (tonight!)? Any favourite recipe is great (snack, meal, treat). I will share a PDF collection in a couple weeks along with the recipes we made with Jorie. Thank you!
