Parent Teacher Conferences

I'm excited to see you at parent teacher conferences. I look forward to talking with you and sharing some classroom snippets. I know your schedules are very busy- thanks for taking the time to meet! Sign-ups will be available online in the next 2 weeks with first opportunity on October 15 for families with the most appointments to schedule.

Science

We have a project coming up due at the beginning of November for our first science unit: simple machines. I have talked to your children about what is expected and shown some student examples. All the work should be done at home.

They received printed directions yesterday. There are two project options. They need to choose 1. It can be brought any day Nov. 3-6. Student presentations will take place Nov. 5 and 6.

Students should lead this project. Parent guidance and support is welcome. During the presentation the students will declare where they had parent help. These projects will all look different and that's part of the fun. It's really important that students bring in work they are proud to present.

I have white poster boards if anyone needs one for the playground poster option.

Please let me know if you have any questions over the next few weeks. Thanks for helping your child succeed with this project.

Book Fair!

Stay tuned for more information on the book fair. It's going to be a blast -hint, hint!

Bible Memory Verses

BMV due Thursday, October 30

Always be joyful because you belong to the Lord. I will say it again. Be joyful! Let everyone know how gentle you are. The Lord is coming soon. Don't worry about anything. No matter what happens, tell God about everything. Ask and pray, and give thanks to him. Then God's peace will watch over your hearts and your minds. He will do this because you belong to Christ Jesus. God's peace can never be completely understood. Finally, my brothers and sisters, always think about what is true. Think about what is noble, right and pure. Think about what is lovely and worthy of respect. If anything is excellent or worthy of praise, think about those kinds of things. Do what you have learned or received or heard from me. Follow my example.

The God who gives peace will be with you.
