*The parent teacher conferences on March 26 are by my request or by your request. I'll reach out to a few families on Monday. The rest of you will have the option to request a meeting later in the week.

Explore Trip, Mexico

Our class is praying specifically for Elijah Entz, Josiah Giesbrecht, and Isaac Hall as the grade 10 and 11 classes and several staff members and parents leave for Mexico. We pray that they would have an experience that draws them closer to God, guided by the Holy Spirit and that their work would be a blessing to the Mexican families they are partnered with.

Math

Fractions and decimals will keep our minds working hard over the next several weeks. In grade 5 we will be working to identify equivalent fractions, order fractions and decimals by value, add and subtract decimals, and then revisit long division with the goal of representing the remainder as a fraction or a decimal.

Language Arts

We'll be finishing our overcoming adversity unit the final week before spring break, then we'll take a break from literature circles in April to complete a big writing project.

Report Cards

We teachers have compiled all kinds of data and observations into what we hope is a fair, accurate, and encouraging report card for your children. If you ever feel there is something wrong on the report card or just want to ask a question, feel free to contact me.

No need to memorize, just a great verse to read.

As a father shows compassion to his children,
so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.

Psalm 103:13
