Art Show

You are invited to the art show May 14 and 15! Select pieces of student art will be on display in our school gym.

Each student will have art on display. Come and browse the show on Thursday, May 14 between 3 to 7 p.m. or Friday, May 15 between 8:30-11:30 a.m. This event is stroller and wheelchair accessible.

Morning Run and PE

The weather is calling us outdoors! We will be spending quite a bit of time preparing for track and field events. Could you talk with your child and make sure he/she has a pair of good running shoes for outside? A sweatshirt is also really helpful. Thanks!

Math

We have begun our study on geometry! Topics within this unit include describing shapes, vocabulary like perpendicular, intersect, rhombus, parallelogram, and kite. We will be playing with and talking about 3D shapes in addition to drawing them and identifying their nets. It's a shorter unit, so look for the test happening mid- May.

Literature Circles

May 6 we'll begin our new Lit Circles unit in the Historical Fiction genre. The books included in this unit cover some sensitive topics, such as war, oppression, poverty, colonization, and natural disasters. Throughout these books, students will be exploring how we can learn from past mistakes and become critical-thinking, justice-seeking citizens. In addition to reading and journaling, students will have plenty of opportunity for discussion and reflection with peers.

Bible Memory Verses

BMV due Thursday, May 7

Suppose I speak in the languages of human beings or of angels. If I don't have love, I am only a loud gong or a noisy cymbal. Suppose I have the gift of prophecy. Suppose I can understand all the secret things of God and know everything about him. And suppose I have enough faith to move mountains. If I don't have love, I am nothing at all. Suppose I give everything I have to poor people. And suppose I give myself over to a difficult life so I can brag. If I don't have love, I get nothing at all. Love is patient. Love is kind. It does not want what belongs to others. It does not brag. It is not proud.
