LA

We'll be spending our final weeks immersed in poetry. The lessons cover poetry vs. prose, simile (pretty as a picture) & metaphor (Life is a highway!) as well as hyperbole (I'm so hungry I could eat a horse) and personification (the sun smiled down on me). Grade 5 kids are especially gifted at hyperbole. I've really enjoyed sharing songs with them that demonstrate these types of figurative language.

Math

We are finishing up our statistics and probability unit with field work. Students will travel around the school to collect data from different classes that they will present to our class and display for the school in a double or triple bar graph.

Track and Field Day

Thank you to all of the parents who helped out with track and field this year. They athletes competed to the best of their ability and hopefully had lots of fun. Did you see the pictures on Seesaw? Sorry I did not get many! My hands were very full.

Bible Memory Verses

Suppose I speak in the languages of human beings or of angels. If I don't have love, I am only a loud gong or a noisy cymbal. ² Suppose I have the gift of prophecy. Suppose I can understand all the secret things of God and know everything about him. And suppose I have enough faith to move mountains. If I don't have love, I am nothing at all. ³ Suppose I give everything I have to poor people. And suppose I give myself over to a difficult life so I can brag. If I don't have love, I get nothing at all.

⁴ Love is patient. Love is kind. It does not want what belongs to others. It does not brag. It is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonour other people. It does not look out for its own interests. It does not easily become angry. It does not keep track of other people's wrongs. ⁶ Love is not happy with evil. But it is full of joy when the truth is spoken. ⁷ It always protects. It always trusts. It always hopes. It never gives up.

⁸ Love never fails. But prophecy will pass away. Speaking in languages that had not been known before will end. And knowledge will pass away. ⁹ What we know now is not complete. What we prophesy now is not perfect. ¹⁰ But when what is complete comes, the things that are not complete will pass away.
